

Nashua River “Wild and Scenic” River Study Committee

Sections of the Nashua, Squannacook, and Nissitissit Rivers

www.WildandScenicNashuaRivers.org

Update & Listening Session

Thursday, April 27, 2017

7:00 – 9:00 PM

Nashua River Watershed Association’s River Resource Center
592 Main Street, Groton, MA

- I. Welcome (5 minutes) -- Lucy Wallace, Chair of the Study Committee
 - Introductions
 - Purpose of the Session
- II. Overview (20 minutes) -- Robert Pontbriand, Chair of the Outreach Sub-committee & Jamie Fosburgh, Acting Manager of the NER Rivers Program, National Park Service
 - Partnership Wild and Scenic Rivers Program
 - How this Study Committee Got Started
 - Activities of the Study Committee So Far
 - Q & A
- III. A Quick Look at the Rivers (5 minutes) – Al Futterman, NRWA Land Programs Director
 - The Nashua, The Squannacook, and The Nissitissit
- IV. Outstandingly Remarkable Resource Values of the Rivers: Our Findings & Your Thoughts – what have we missed? (60 minutes) – Al Futterman, NRWA Land Programs Director & Elizabeth Ainsley Campbell, NRWA Executive Director
 - Biological Diversity
 - Recreation & Scenic
 - Historic & Cultural
- V. What’s Next and How People Can Participate (15 minutes) -- Robert Pontbriand, Chair of the Outreach Sub-committee
 - Outreach Plans
 - Our Web-Site: www.WildandScenicNashuaRivers.org
- VI. Wrap Up (5 minutes)

The Nashua, Squannacook, and Nissitissit Rivers- photos by Cindy Knox Photography